But the best Mohaminedan jurists have been compelled to consider seriously whether the cause of Islam could be benefited by encouraging the hot-headed Egyptian clamor for the proclamation of a jehad. According to a relebrated Oriental scholar, who has been giving his views in a German newsnaper upon the legality of proclaiming ichaels, every Constantinople jurist, "from the Sheikh ul Islam to the lowest howadi," agrees that a holy war or jehad can only be legally proclaimed if there is a reasonable prospect of its being successful, and that if there is no such prospect a jehad Is unlawful, inasmuch as it uselessly sacrifices life and property. A further condition of the legality of a holy war is that the lawful spiritual head of a race which goes to war shall join personally The horse's half necessarily sees the the camp of those who have proclaimed hardest service of any portion of his it and all the subjects of the belligerent is the common practice, by men calling | curious fact about a hely war is that, themselves shoers, and by nails made too | according to the Mohammedan code, it large and driven too deep. for human, fowl and animat flesh, was first prepared and introduced by Dr. Geo. W. Merchant, in Lockport, N. Y., U. S. A., 1831, since which lime it has steadity grown in public favor, and is now acknowledged und admitted by the trade to be the standard liniment of the country. When we make this announcement we do so without fear of contradiction, notwithstanding we are aware there are many who are more or less prejudiced against proprietary remedies especially on account of the many humbugs on the market; however, we are pleased to state that such prejudice does not exist against GAttilling titl. We do not claim wonders or miracles, for our liniment, but we do claim it is without an equal. It is put up in bottles of three sizes, and all we ask is that you give ita fair triat, remembering that the Oit purup with white wrapper (smail) is for human and fowl tesh, and that with yellow wrapper (three sizes) for animal flesh.
